

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 13, 2011

Contact: Tess King
brownt24@lcc.edu
517-483-1373

LCC Announces Changes for Spring Semester 2011

LANSING, MICH. – Spring semester at Lansing Community College (LCC) begins on Saturday, January 15 and along with that there are several changes students should be aware of.

Due to a recent academic reorganization, some department offices have moved. Office locations, email addresses and phone numbers can be found at <http://www.lcc.edu/schedule/preapproval/contact/>. A flyer with the same information will be distributed to students on campus. And as always, students should feel free to ask members of the LCC staff for assistance. Classroom locations listed in the schedule book have not changed.

Parking fees remain the same, however on January 25, the college will begin charging in the Gannon ramp and surface lots from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. Evening charges are in effect Monday-Thursday. Parking will remain free on Friday evenings and weekends. There is no charge for parking on city streets after 6 p.m. More information can be found at <http://www.lcc.edu/parking/>.

In observance of the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday, the college is closed on January 17, 2011.

The Student Services Center in 203 of the Gannon Building is available for students that need further assistance.

###

About Lansing Community College

Lansing Community College is Michigan's third largest community college with more than 30,000 students attending each year. The College has more than 280 degree and certificate programs. LCC offers courses in general education for those interested in transferring to a four-year institution, career and workforce development, developmental education and personal enrichment. To meet the professional development and training needs of regional employees, the college offers customized programs for credit, non-credit and continuing education. The University Center at LCC offers students the opportunity to earn bachelor's and master's degrees from six partner universities on the downtown LCC campus. For more information, visit lcc.edu.